

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

The Wisconsin Journal of Law, Gender & Society, one of the first in the nation devoted to the study of women and the law, has strived to contribute insightful scholarship to this evolving field of study. We publish articles that examine the intersection of law and gender with issues of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, and sexual orientation.

The Journal seeks to publish a special issue in honor of Professor Emerita Marygold Melli, whose work is closely aligned with the Journal's mission and values. Proposals for this special issue are due by March 1, 2013. Submissions are due by June 7, 2013. The targeted date of publication is Fall 2013.

This special issue will be produced in collaboration with the University of Wisconsin Law School and the Institute for Legal Studies, which are jointly sponsoring the 6th Annual Midwest Family Law Consortium Workshop that reflects and celebrates the scholarly and professional contributions of Professor Melli.

For more information about the Workshop, please visit the website at <http://law.wisc.edu/ils/2013familylaw/> or contact program chairs Professor Tonya Brito (tlbrito@wisc.edu) and Professor Marsha Mansfield (mammansfield@wisc.edu).

More information about Professor Melli is available at <http://law.wisc.edu/profiles/msmelli@wisc.edu>

Submissions will be accepted via email to the Journal's Editor-in-Chief, Rukmini Vasupuram, at vasupuram@wisc.edu

More information about the Wisconsin Journal of Law, Gender & Society is available at: <http://hosted.law.wisc.edu/wordpress/wjlg/>